Verbier, Switzerland will host the grand finale of the Freeride World Tour with the Nissan O'Neill Xtreme. 16 snowboarders and 16 skiers from the elite of Freeride will tackle the mythical North Face of the Bec des Rosses, a dauntingly steep and frighteningly jagged 500 m rock-face and battle it out for the $100,000 prize purse. After the Xtreme there will be a winner of each discipline of the Tour and the four Freeride World Champions will be crowned. Around 5000 spectators join the riders at one of the most beautiful natural arenas of the Alps, the Col des Gentianes in Verbier but if youre not one of the 5000, you can watch the exciting finals on Boarding.com
