

Globe Pro Fiji Off for the Day

Contributed by Pro Surfing
Wednesday, 28 May 2008
Last Updated Friday, 30 May 2008

Thursday, May 29, 2008 - TAVARUA, Fiji The 16 remaining surfers in the Globe Pro Fiji will enjoy their third day off in paradise, today's competition has been called off citing swell on the horizon. "We're focused on a great finish to what has already been a really good event and right now we're preparing for a perfect six foot (two metre) high swell to arrive at Cloudbreak around Sunday or Monday, maybe Tuesday," Contest Director Steve Robertson said. "Let's face it, these final 16 surfers are in a high pressure situation and Globe want a classic finish. Slater can potentially steal a massive break here, or Fanning. Joel Parkinson, the Hobgoods and Adriano De Souza can really claw their way back into title contention. We want this finish to occur in awesome Cloudbreak conditions!"

Globe Pro Fiji Day 6 Highlights on Pro Surfing .com